

is hosting the following program:

Do you celebrate Christmas? Hanukkah? Kwanza?

“Is the Gift-Giving Season
Spoiling Your Kids — or Your Joy?”

Monday, December 6th
10:00am - 11:00am

Rabbi Debra Orenstein, of Congregation B’nai Israel (Emerson) will lead an open discussion on this topic —

Whether one celebrates Hanukkah, Christmas, or Kwanza, or has neighbors who do, this time of year seems to be fraught for many families.

How can we teach our kids about the deeper messages of the holidays, and minimize greed, ingratitude, and commercialism?

Rabbi Orenstein will offer her perspective and ecumenical advice on handling gifts in a way that is pleasing to parents and kids — and spiritual and meaningful. Babies & children are welcome!

Sertinos Café is located at:
27 Kinderkamack Road in Emerson
(Next to Dairy Queen) 201-265-5550

For further info, contact Congregation B’nai Israel’s office:
201-265-2272 or bnaioffice@bisrael.com
OR visit the temple website: www.bisrael.com